

Furthermore, it offers you the possibility to participate in projects as a volunteer, both in Mexico as well as abroad, of integrating to the managing bodies of the association, to network AMVIAC with general interest projects, present and represent the association in different national and international forums, event and meetings, be a leader in one of the workcamps organized by the association.